Extend Your Commitment Into a Legacy of Warm Meals and Hope.
Many donors find making a gift in their will is the best way for them to have a transformational impact on the lives of their hungry neighbors.

This was the best option for Ken and Joan, supporters of Mid-Ohio Food Collective. First they made sure their families were taken care of, and then they decided to continue their legacy of giving for the causes they care most about.

The Food Collective’s mission is important to Joan and Ken. After her parents divorced, Joan grew up in a single-parent household. Her mother worked hard, cut corners, and made it work. They never went hungry. But Joan knew it was a struggle for her mom to get food on the table every night.

Joan and Ken chose to include Mid-Ohio Food Collective in their will as a way to honor the sacrifices her mother made to keep her family fed.
